

MORTON JEWEL THIEF KNEW THE HIDING PLACE

Entered House While Family Was at Dinner and Went Direct to Gems.

DOOR NOT LOCKED.

Mrs. Morton Places Loss at $2,000—Has No Suspicion as to Robber.

Mrs. Edward Howard Morton, who was robbed of jewels valued at about $2,000 last night while visiting at the home of her father, William Hyde, on Fairfield avenue, Greenwich, Conn., said today that the thief must have known just where the jewels were kept and must also have been familiar with the movements of the members of the household.

"I was not away from my room more than thirty-five minutes," Mrs. Morton said, "and the thief was committed then. We were dining, and the only servant in the house at the time was waiting on the table. I left my room at exactly 6 o'clock, and when I returned it was 7:05. I know my jewels were in a drawer in the dresser when I went down stairs, but the drawer was open and the contents scattered about the floor when I got back. The jewels were gone.

"We began an investigation and found that the thief must have entered by the front door, which was not locked. He, we think, then crept up the front steps, knowing the family was at dinner, and quietly helped himself to my jewels." The value of the jewelry has been greatly exaggerated. Some of it was old, and it was worth more to me than many times its intrinsic value. However, I do not believe the entire lot will bring more than $1,500 or $2,000 at the most.

"While we are convinced that some one who knew the house and all about the movements of the family was the thief, we haven't a single suspicion.
The affair is most mysterious."

Mr. and Mrs. Morton have been visiting at the Hyde home for the past two weeks. Mr. Hyde and Mr. Morton lost no time in getting into communication with Chief of Police Ritch after the robbery was discovered.

Chief Ritch recalled having seen two strangers in Greenwich during the day.
He learned that the two men had taken a 3:30 train for New York, and he telephoned the police of New York to arrest them. The men were taken into custody at Grand Central Station. They gave their names as William Blum and Harry Hastings, and said they were jewelry salesmen.

They expressed amazement when requested to visit Police Headquarters, but accompanied Lieut. Funston. There they established a perfect alibi and were let go. The stolen jewelry consisted of a diamond sunburst, several rings and some pins, together with several antique pieces.

IDLE, TRIED TO DIE.

Nylan Used Gun, and Is Taken to Hospital a Prisoner.

Gustav Nylan, a nineteen-year-old machinist's apprentice, out of work, tried to kill himself today by inhaling gas through a tube in his furnished room on the top floor of No. 57 Second avenue.

His aunt smelled the escaping gas and called a policeman, who took Nylan to Bellevue Hospital, a prisoner.

MRS. KUHN NOT IN REST CURE.

Banker's Wife Returns From Visit, but Not to Sanitarium.

The published statement that Mrs.
Perceval Kuhne, wife of a member of Knauht, Nachod & Kuhne, bankers at No. 15 William street, has been placed in a sanitarium is untrue. Mrs. Kuhne is not now and never has been in a sanitarium.

The fact is that Mrs. Kuhne and her daughter have been out of the State on a pleasure trip during the past week.

LITTLE TALKS TO STOUT WOMEN No. 5

In these days, when Fashion demands unnatural slenderness, every woman—especially the stout woman—should be sure that the corset she selects to make her appear more sylphlike shall not give her slenderness at the sacrifice of health and comfort.

A corset that simply squeezes the abdomen and hips is highly dangerous.
Unless the abdomen is supported from below, by the Nemo Self-Reducing and Relief Straps (following the convex shape of the body), compression only drives the fat further down, puts more weight upon the weakened abdominal muscles, and may produce a sagging of the delicate internal organs.

No corset but the NEMO gives the slightest abdominal support

That is why the Nemo Corset is endorsed by physicians and hygienists the world over. It is scientific. Its construction is anatomically correct. It is not only safe, from the hygienic standpoint —but it brings better health.

Nemo
SELF-REDUCING CORSETS are sold in all good stores throughout the world—$3.00 to $10.
